Nandana is a luxurious private home rental in the Bahamas that's built in the Asian beach house style out of salvaged, yacht-quality timber. Nandana translates to "paradise" in Sanscrit, and is a near-palacial 18,000 square feet of luxurious interior space. Though a rental, Nandana offers all the amenities one might find at a five-star resort with a thousand rooms:

- o world-class cuisine
- o a heated 120-foot infinity pool and Jacuzzi
- o fully equipped gym
- o in-house spa
- o deep sea fishing yacht
- o library and game room
- o top-shelf bar
- o 400-bottle wine cellar
- o private office with global connectivity
- o a Land Rover Defender (not available in the US)
- o Scuba, snorkeling equipment, kayaks and jet skis
- o access to a private jet landing strip next to the compound

Other impressive, luxury amenities include access to a private driver to take you to a restaurant or shop anywhere on Grande Bahama Island, access to a new Land Rover Defender if you want to take yourself, access to ATVs, a yacht, a deep sea fishing boat called "The Lioness," and jet skis.
